

8064

Austin American-
Statesman
Austin, TX
Circ 194926

JAN 25 2003

Busy time ahead for lawmakers 190

Legislators might have a few extra long days over the next two weeks.

The Texas Public Policy Foundation released its schedule for four days of seminars that will extend the members' hours. Given that Gov. Rick Perry, House Speaker Tom Craddick and Lt. Gov. David Dewhurst endorsed the seminars, the San Antonio foundation shouldn't have a hard time attracting a crowd of legislators.

The three leaders will be keynote speakers at the conference, and the panel discussions will include school finance, insurance, taxes and higher education. The conference will take place at the Four Seasons hotel Wednesday and Thursday, and then continue Feb. 3 and 4. For more information go to www.tppf.org.