

The Texas Public Policy Foundation is pleased to welcome to Dallas

John Stossel!

Co-anchor of ABC's 20/20 and a 17-time Emmy Award Winner, John Stossel says "Give Me A Break!" as he exposes trial lawyers, government fraud, and millionaire welfare queens. As always, Stossel won't pull any punches in a witty, reasoned, irreverent speech at an exciting luncheon and book signing in Dallas! Copies of his new book, "Give Me A Break," will be available for purchase at the lunch. Reservations for the lunch are required.

How did Stossel go from award-winning journalist to the scourge of the liberal media?
