

Looking Beyond Prison Walls

Pizza & Policy

April 12, 2005

11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.

900 Congress Ave., Ste. 400

In a landmark shift in criminal justice policy, the Texas House is declining to build new prisons in favor of greater reliance on other strategies.

This luncheon will provide an opportunity to discuss the implications of this change and how to increase the effectiveness of the alternatives to incarceration that will play a greater role in the state's criminal justice system.

The panel discussion moderated by Marc Levin, director of the Center for Effective Justice, will feature:

- The Honorable Jerry Madden
Chairman, House Committee on Corrections
- The Honorable Mark Luitjen
144th Criminal District Judge, Bexar County
- Ann del Llano
Criminal Justice Liaison, American Civil Liberties Union
- Dr. Geraldine Nagy (invited)
Travis County Director of Community Supervision & Corrections
