About the Texas Public Policy Foundation

The Texas Public Policy Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit, non-partisan research institute guided by the core principles of individual liberty, personal responsibility, private property rights, free markets and limited government.

The Foundation's mission is to improve Texas by generating academically sound research and data on state issues, and by recommending the findings to opinion leaders, policymakers, the media and general public.

Funded by hundreds of individuals, foundations and corporations, the Foundation does not accept government funds or contributions to influence the outcomes of its research. The president of the Foundation is Brooke Rollins.

A few quotes about the Foundation:

"I commend the Texas Public Policy Foundation for its excellent work in support of personal liberty and free markets." – Milton Friedman

"TPPF has been very, very important to Texas, in providing... conservatives with the intellectual capital to make change." – Railroad Commissioner Michael Williams

"The Texas Public Policy Foundation has brought together specific proposals by some of the nation's best authorities on the most important issues facing our states..." – Ronald Reagan

"TPPF offers real solutions for real Texans." – Governor Rick Perry

"More than a think tank for Texas, the Texas Public Policy Foundation is setting the standard by which other research organizations in the nation will be judged." – John Fund, Wall Street Journal editorial writer

The Foundation's Center for Economic Freedom promotes economic freedom throughout Texas in three primary ways: 1) conducting in-depth studies, policy research, literature reviews, etc. identifying the harmful effects of laws and regulations on the economy, businesses and consumers, 2) using its research to develop and support practical market-based alternatives to government interference in the marketplace, and 3) disseminating its findings and recommendations to policymakers (the primary audience), opinion leaders, industry, stakeholder groups, the media, and the public. The Center's director is Bill Peacock.
