

Now Seeking Applications For Policy Analyst, Center for Education Policy

Description:

The policy analyst in the Texas Public Policy Foundation's Center for Education Policy engages in research, writing, legislative education, and public and media communications on K-12 public education and higher education issues. Compensation is dependent upon qualifications and experience, but the salary will likely be $30-40k.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Researching, analyzing and making recommendations on the Foundation's policy issues
- Effectively communicating the Foundation's policy recommendations to key stakeholders, including legislators, their staff and the media
- Working with allied organizations
- Writing policy briefs, perspectives, research studies, commentaries, testimony, and blog postings
- Monitoring and testifying before various legislative committees and state agencies

Qualifications:

- Ability to effectively research and advocate the Foundation's conservative free-market principles and recommendations
- Bachelor's degree; graduate studies helpful
- Proficiency in statistics will be favorably considered
- One to three years of relevant experience
- Excellent research, writing, editing, and public presentation skills
- Experience and proficiency in interacting with legislators, media, stakeholders, and the general public is helpful
- A general understanding of charter schools, school finance and accountability measures is preferred
- Experience with basic software applications such as those in the Microsoft Office suite

Please send cover letter, resume, salary requirement, references and writing samples to:

Greg Sindelar
Texas Public Policy Foundation administration@texaspolicy.com

The Texas Public Policy Foundation is a non-profit, non-partisan research institute offering competitive salaries and benefits to qualified candidates.

About the Texas Public Policy Foundation

The Texas Public Policy Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit, non-partisan research institute guided by the core principles of individual liberty, personal responsibility, private property rights, free markets, and limited government.

The Foundation's mission is to improve Texas by generating academically sound research and data on state issues, and by recommending the findings to opinion leaders, policymakers, the media, and general public.

Funded by hundreds of individuals, foundations, and corporations, the Foundation does not accept government funds or contributions to influence the outcomes of its research. The Foundation is led by a Board of Directors chaired by Dr. Wendy Lee Gramm, President & CEO, Brooke Rollins and Executive Director, The Honorable Arlene Wohlgemuth.

A few quotes about the Foundation:

"I commend the Texas Public Policy Foundation for its excellent work in support of personal liberty and free markets." – Milton Friedman

"TPPF has been very, very important to Texas, in providing... conservatives with the intellectual capital to make change." – Railroad Commissioner Michael Williams

"The Texas Public Policy Foundation has brought together specific proposals by some of the nation's best authorities on the most important issues facing our states..." – Ronald Reagan

"TPPF offers real solutions for real Texans." – Governor Rick Perry

"More than a think tank for Texas, the Texas Public Policy Foundation is setting the standard by which other research organizations in the nation will be judged." – John Fund, Wall Street Journal editorial writer

The Foundation's Board of Directors consists of:

Phil D. Adams
Bryan, Texas

James R. Leininger, MD
San Antonio, Texas

Jeff Sandefer
Austin, Texas

Ernest Angelo
Midland, Texas

Tim Lyles
San Antonio, Texas

George Seay
Dallas, Texas

Tim Dunn, Vice Chairman
Midland, Texas

William A. McMinn
Houston, Texas

George W. Strake, Jr.
Houston, Texas

Wendy Gramm, Chairwoman
Helotes, Texas

Vance C. Miller
Dallas, Texas

Craig James
Celina, Texas

Brenda Pejovich
Dallas, Texas

Brooke L. Rollins
Fort Worth, Texas

For more information about the Foundation, please visit www.texaspolicy.com.