

Drew Scheberle (Shh-Ebb-Ur-Lee)

Senior Vice President, Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce

Drew supports Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce volunteer executives to create federal, state, local and private company policy and effective training to deepen short and long-term talent.

Drew provides staff leadership for the Chamber:

- Federal advocacy with the Administration, 7 Congressional and 2 U.S. Senate offices on innovation, education and immigration;
- State engagement with agencies, commissions and the Central Texas delegation on reducing the state-enforced property taxes on taxpayers and improve college/career/military readiness rates;
- Regional efforts to support Austin Community College's doubling of the certifications earned by 2030 and Workforce Solutions' Master Community Workforce Plan to upskill 10,000 Austin-ites in poverty through training to placement in jobs paying 200% of the federal poverty rate;
- Initiatives to increase Metro Austin direct-to-college enrollment rates to 70% for this year's high school Class of 2019 and to expand to 12 P-TECH sites in K12.
