

Mark Meckler is the President of Convention of States Foundation & Convention of States Action (COSA). COSA has 4 million supporters and volunteers, representing every state legislative district in the nation. Mark appears regularly on television, radio and online discussing the conservative grassroots perspective on political issues.

Before COSA, Mark was the Co-Founder of Tea Party Patriots. He left the organization in 2012 to implement this constitutional solution to take power from DC and return it to the sovereign citizens of the states.

Mark has a B.A. from San Diego State University, and a law degree from University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law. He practiced law for two decades.

Mark and Patty have been married 26 years, with one son who just completed 4 years in the Marine Corps, and is in his first year at Scalia Law at George Mason, and a daughter who is a senior at Hillsdale College. Mark and Patty recently moved to Texas and now spend their free time with their Great Danes - Gideon & Levi, at their Leander, Texas homestead.
