

John Zadrozny

Fellow, Rule of Law Defense Fund

John Zadrozny is currently serving as a Fellow with the Rule of Law Defense Fund and is helping Republican state attorneys general pursue immigration-themed legislation against the Biden Administration. Prior to this current effort, John spent the previous four years in different positions in the Trump Administration, including as Deputy Assistant to the President in the Office of the Senior Advisor for Policy and Special Assistant to the President for Justice and Homeland Security on the Domestic Policy Council.

Prior to his time with the Trump Administration, John also served as counsel on several congressional committees, in the George W. Bush Administration, and as an Assistant District Attorney with the New York County (Manhattan) District Attorney's Office.

John has a B.A. in History from Fordham University in the Bronx, New York, and a J.D. from the Catholic University of America's Columbus School of Law in Washington, D.C.