

THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL AT

CASTLE HILLS

Michael R. Pinkston is currently Superintendent of The Christian School at Castle Hills, San Antonio, Texas. He was saved in September of 1978 and called to the ministry of serving children the following year. He has served in leading three Christian schools over the past 39 years.

Michael has served as Superintendent of The Christian School at Castle Hills in San Antonio from 2010 to the present. Under his leadership, the school has grown from 186 to 720 students, many from some of the poorest neighborhoods in the city. The school is currently completing a $10.5 million capital campaign to fund a bright visionary future for the school.

Michael previously served as the Chair of the South-Central Accreditation Commission for ACSI. Most recently he served on the Regional Council for the ACSI South-Central Region. Michael is currently serving as the ACSI Representative for Texas schools. He speaks frequently on topics related to Christian education and consults with school leadership and boards across our region. Michael has a “heart for Christian school leaders serving each other” in the belief that we are stronger together.

Michael and his wife Kathi live in San Antonio, Texas and have two children and three amazing grandchildren.
