

Don Stroud
Williamson County Resident;
Former Director of Strategic Operations for iVoterGuide.com, Heritage Alliance

Don Stroud and his wife, Karen, are celebrating 37 years of marriage, all of which have been in Williamson County where they raised and personally administered the education of their four children, and where Don has grown start-up tech businesses generating dozens of jobs contributing significantly to the Williamson County and Texas economies.

Raised in Weatherford and Graham from seven generations of Texas roots predating the Republic of Texas, Don has served as precinct chair, election judge, city councilman, regional education leader, Williamson County YMCA Teen Court advisor, and candidate vetting committee chair.

His most recent civic duty was serving as Director of Strategic Operations in the leadership of Heritage Alliance's iVoterGuide project which evaluated the political philosophies of over 8,000 local, state, and federal candidates for public office. He is currently providing evaluation oversight on hundreds of school board candidates in high profile school districts both in Texas and across the nation.

With Karen's encouragement, Don is committed to defending and advancing freedom for all Texans to exercise personal responsibility, self-reliance and free market innovation, especially for their three Williamson County grandchildren.
