

Grant Moody
Director of Innovation, Valero Energy
Concerned Parent

Grant is the Republican nominee for Bexar County Commissioner Pct 3. He is currently the Director of Innovation at Valero Energy, a Fortune 100 independent refiner headquartered in San Antonio. He previously served 10 years on active duty as a Marine F-18 pilot with combat deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. He continues to serve as a LtCol in the Marine Reserves.

Since leaving active duty, Grant has been politically active supporting conservatives for public office. In 2017, he was appointed by Texas Gov Greg Abbott to serve on the Texas Veterans Land Board alongside Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush. He also serves on the Advisory Council for Soldiers' Angels a national non-profit. He previously served as the Republican Political Director for With Honor Fund. Grant is a distinguished graduate of the United States Naval Academy with a B.S. in Quantitative Economics. He also holds a M.S. in Statistics from Texas A&M University and an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton Business School.

Grant is married with 3 young children. They reside in the northern suburbs of San Antonio.