

LIBERTY LEADERSHIP COUNCIL ANNUAL SUMMIT: FUELING THE FIRE

NOVEMBER 11-12, 2022 | AUSTIN, TX

All activities will take place at the TPPF Headquarters, located at 901 Congress Avenue, with the exception of the Texas Supreme Court tour.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11TH

Welcome Reception ft. A Conversation with Steve Munisteri and Greg Sindelar: The Past, Present, and Future of Conservatism

6:30-8:30pm | Liberty Café, 6th Floor | Drinks and Hors d'oeuvres

Speakers:

- Steve Munisteri Senior Advisor to Governor Greg Abbott; Former Chairman, Republican Party of Texas; former Deputy Assistant to President Trump; and founder, Young Conservatives of Texas
- Greg Sindelar, Chief Executive Officer, Texas Public Policy Foundation

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 12TH

Breakfast Keynote—From Bible to Blockchain: A Conversation with Peter Rex

8:15-9:15am | Red McCombs Event Center, 6th Floor

Peter Rex is a savvy entrepreneur, a real estate mogul, and a tech tycoon. He is also outspoken about many of his conservative viewpoints and steadfast in his Christian faith.

Not the story we're used to hearing, is it?

In this groundbreaking keynote conversation, we will explore the power behind reaching across the aisle: when to do it and when to hold your ground. What are the key factors that have contributed to Peter's success and how has he managed to remain a beacon for liberty, even when he's the solo voice in the room? We will also discuss what's on the horizon in the 2023 Texas Legislative Session for housing affordability, the world of technology, and more.

Speakers:

- Peter Rex Founder, Rex Tech Ventures
- The Honorable Zach Whiting (moderator) Senior Fellow of Technology Policy, Texas Public Policy Foundation

Panel I—Inside Baseball: An Analysis of the Conservative Movement

9:30-10:30am | Joe B. Hogsett Theater, 1st Floor

What is it like working alongside some of the nation's most powerful elected officials? What insights were gained and what lessons were learned? How can we make America more like Texas? What is the current trajectory of the conservative movement and how do we keep the fire for liberty aflame?

Join us as we explore these provocative questions and more with two of the most seasoned and influential voices in the conservative movement:

- John D. Colyandro Former Senior Advisor and Policy Director for Governor Greg Abbott and Executive Director of the Texas Conservative Coalition Research Institute
- Sherry Sylvester Award-winning journalist, political communications and public policy expert, former Senior Advisor to Lt. Governor Dan Patrick, and Distinguished Senior Fellow at the Texas Public Policy Foundation
- Dr. Richard A. Johnson III, Ed.D. (moderator) Director, Booker T. Washington Initiative, Texas Public Policy Foundation

Panel II—Making a Big Splash: Going Deep with Freshman Legislators

10:45-11:45am | Joe B. Hogsett Theater, 1st Floor

These lawmakers have a Texas-sized weight on their shoulders but they all bring a unique perspective to the issues facing our great state. What are the priorities of these elected officials who are new to their chamber? What are the pros and cons of going into the legislative session as a freshman? We will dive into these questions and more with this lineup of dynamic new legislators.

Speakers:

- Carrie Isaac
- Senator-elect Mayes Middleton
- Senator-elect Kevin Sparks
- Derek Cohen, Ph.D. (moderator) Vice President of Policy, Texas Public Policy Foundation

Closing Keynote Luncheon ft. Senator Dawn Buckingham

12:00-1:15pm | Red McCombs Event Center, 6th Floor

Guided Tour of the Texas Supreme Court

2:00-3:00pm | 201 W. 14th St.

We will walk over together from the TPPF building so be sure to wear comfortable shoes.