

Buckley Morlot has spent her career in policy and development and has a passion for keeping Texas Texan. Buckley spent the last 4 years at the Texas Public Policy Foundation as a development officer in Houston. She has recently left the Foundation to pursue her love of politics. She is passionate about helping candidates and PACs raise the money needed to WIN!

Prior to joining TPPF, Buckley was Executive Vice President of California Policy Center. She started her career in the Bush White House, serving under President George W. Bush as an Associate Director of Presidential Personnel.

After the White House, she joined the Development Team at Smile Train, an international charity based in New York City. At Smile Train, Buckley was responsible for their major gifts program and corporate partnerships. While there, she traveled to Kenya and India to visit partner hospitals.

When the 2012 Presidential race began to ramp up, she knew she couldn't sit on the sidelines. Her initial love of politics drew her back in, and she began consulting on campaigns throughout New York State until she and her husband moved to California in 2014.

Buckley is a 5th generation Texan. Though it took her 15 years of living all over the country (and South Africa and Australia), she is very happy to be raising her family in the great state of Texas.

Buckley is the immediate past president of Magic Circle Republican Women's Club, one of the oldest and largest clubs in Texas. She also serves as 1st VP, Programs on the Greater Houston Council of Federated Republican Women. Buckley was honored as a 2023 Maverick PAC Rising 40 as well as an inaugural member of TFRW's 40 under 40 class.

She is a board member at the Children's Assessment Center of Harris County. Buckley and her husband teach Sunday school to three- and four-year-olds at St. Luke's Methodist Church. She is a graduate of the University of Colorado at Boulder with a bachelor's degree in political science.
