Join us as we discuss the key takeaways from the 2024 election with a distinguished panel of experts. These speakers bring a diverse range of insights, including high-level political strategy, grassroots movement, and data-driven analysis to help us understand the key moments of the election. Gain a deeper understanding of what the outcome means for conservative policy, how it will influence the political landscape, and what to expect moving forward.

Panelists:

- Jordan Berry President, Berry Communications
 - Tyler Norris Owner, Waterloo Communications
 - Derek Ryan Owner & Founder, Ryan Data & Research
- Moderated by Haley Kyles, Dallas LLC Executive Team*

PANEL II—ENGAGEMENT BREAKOUT SESSIONS

11:00AM–
12:35PM

During this breakout session, participants will engage in two interactive and educational workshops designed to empower young conservatives with the skills to create meaningful change in your communities, the state, and nation. Each attendee will attend both tracks, rotating between sessions to get a comprehensive understanding of grassroots activism and legislative engagement. The third track is exclusively for members of the LLC executive teams.

- Attendees with BS1 on your nametag will go to Breakout Session 1 first.
- Attendees with BS2 on your nametag will go to Breakout Session 2 first.
- Attendees with ETR on your nametag will go to Breakout Session 3 for the entirety of the panel (no rotating).

Timing:

- Concurrent Breakout Session 1—11:00-11:45AM
- Concurrent Breakout Session 2—11:50AM-12:35PM

Concurrent Breakout Session 1: Grassroots Engagement Workshop Joe B. Hogsett Theater - 1st Floor

In this hands-on session, attendees will learn how to effectively articulate and disseminate conservative policy solutions within their local communities and beyond. Led by Sam Pohl, TPPF's Director of Engagement, attendees will learn:

- Strategies for engaging community members and social media networks
- Tips on planning and hosting educational events in your home or community
- How to partner with grassroots organizations and maximize collaboration efforts
- Practical steps for submitting op-eds and other written works
- Effectively delivering a message

FUTURE FORWARD: EMPOWERING YOUNG CONSERVATIVE LEADERS

Concurrent Breakout Session 2: Legislative Engagement Workshop Red McCombs Event Center - 6th Floor

This workshop focuses on how to influence policy and build relationships with lawmakers. Led by Andrew Brown, TPPF's Vice President of Policy, attendees will learn:

- How to testify effectively at the state capitol
- Best practices for contacting legislators through calls, emails, or in-person meetings
- Cultivating and maintaining relationships with legislators, during and outside of legislative sessions
- Basics of bill drafting and other avenues for legislative involvement, including resources available through organizations like TPPF

Breakout Session 3: Executive Team Roundtable

11:00AM-12:35PM | Creighton Lomax Boardroom - 2nd Floor

Exclusively for LLC chapter leaders, this breakout session offers a unique opportunity to collaborate and learn from one another while receiving expert guidance on grassroots and legislative engagement. Led by Tabatha Vasquez, Senior Policy Advisor to Governor Greg Abbott, and Jerome Greener, TPPF Executive Vice President, this roundtable will cover the strategies and tools needed to elevate your chapter's influence and impact within the conservative movement. Attendees of this session will not rotate as this track will last for the duration of the panel session.
