

Renee DeLouche
Assistant Secretary, Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections

With more than 20 years of service in probation, parole, and reentry, Renee' DeLouche is the Assistant Secretary of the Louisiana Department of Public Safety and Corrections, overseeing reentry, education, and chaplaincy programs—which provide faith-based and character-based programs to inmates of all faith groups to prepare them for successful reentry by establishing a spiritual foundation to change lives and improve public safety.