

Andy Bean has served as President of Lubbock Land Company since 2018, leading the planning and construction of new residential and commercial development phases across West Texas. He brings deep expertise in both housing and commercial real estate, guided by a simple philosophy: work with high character to create value for others.

A proud alumnus of Texas Tech University with both a Bachelor's and Master's degree, Andy is an active community leader. He currently serves as Vice Chairman of the Capital Improvements Advisory Committee for the City of Lubbock, Chairman of the West Texas Home Builders Association (WTHBA) Developer's Council, Chairman of the WTHBA Programs and board member for Lubbock Lemonade Day. He is also involved with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Family remains at the center of his life. He and his wife, Samantha, are the proud parents of two children, Bennett and Adalynn.
