

Mikael A. Garcia, J.D.

Mike Garcia is an eighth-generation Texan. A graduate of the University of Texas and St. Mary's School of Law, Mike met his wife, Carolyn, through the 40 Days for Life campaign in Austin in 2009.

Mike and Carolyn have five children and they reside in Fort Worth where Mike works as an adjunct professor of politics at the University of Dallas and as Chief of Staff to Tarrant County Commissioner Matt Krause. Mike and his family are parishioners of St. Mary the Virgin Catholic Church in Arlington.

Previously, Mike worked for nearly two decades in the Texas Legislature in Austin, serving as chief of staff to members of both the Texas House and Senate and as Executive Director & General Counsel to the Texas Freedom Caucus in the Texas House of Representatives under now-Senator Mayes Middleton. While in Austin, Mike also worked under the leadership of Dr. Kevin Roberts at the Texas Public Policy Foundation, where he served as director of their legislative affairs department. Mike is also an active member of the Federalist Society and the St. Thomas More Society.
