Kurt Andrew Schlichter
Author, “American Warlord”

Kurt Schlichter was personally recruited by Andrew Breitbart to write conservative commentary and currently appears on television as a commentator on Fox, Newsmax, and other platforms in the United States and Europe, discussing various legal, political, cultural, and military topics. He is a frequent guest on nation radio shows and often guest hosts for Hugh Hewitt, Joe Piscopo, and others. Kurt is a Senior Columnist for Townhall, writing columns on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. He has published in notable outlets such as The New York Post, The Los Angeles Times, The Washington Times, and The San Francisco Examiner. He is the author of 17 non-fiction books and novels, including the Kelly Turnbull series of conservative action thrillers. Kurt’s latest bestseller is his novel American Warlord (Ark Press, 2025).

Kurt is active on social media, with over 620,000 Twitter followers (@KurtSchlichter).

Kurt was a trial lawyer and name partner in a Los Angeles-area law firm. He is known for successfully representing conservative figures in major legal cases. Kurt is a 1994 graduate of Loyola Law School, where he was a law review editor. He majored in Communications and Political Science as an undergraduate at the University of California, San Diego.

He retired as an Army infantry colonel, serving both on active duty and in the Army National Guard during his 27-year career. A graduate of the Army Airborne School, he commanded the 1st Squadron, 18th Cavalry Regiment (Reconnaissance-Surveillance-Target Acquisition) and is a veteran of the Persian Gulf War, the Los Angeles Riot, and Operation Enduring Freedom (Kosovo). He earned a master’s degree in Strategic Studies from the United States Army War College in July 2011.

Kurt splits his time between Los Angeles and Houston with his wife, Irina, and favors red wine, red meat, and .45-caliber pistols.
